

Social Media Disclaimer

The opinions or views expressed on Auto Care Association social media platforms, including, but not limited to, blogs, Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn, and Instagram pages, as well as Auto Care Insider magazine, represent the thoughts of individual users and online communities, and not necessarily those of Auto Care Association or any of its corporate partners, affiliates or any of their respective directors, officers, employees, staff or members of its respective board of directors. The opinions and views expressed on these pages do not in any way reflect the views of the site they are posted on, other sites affiliated with the site, the Auto Care Association staff involved with maintaining the site or any members of the site. By submitting content (defined as materials, advice, representations, opinions and views) to any of Auto Care Association's social media sites or platforms, you understand and acknowledge that this information is available to the public, and that you are allowing the Auto Care Association, and its communities, to have a permanent right to use your comments for Auto Care Association business purposes including but not limited to internal and external promotions. This could include using, republishing, reproducing, distributing, changing or displaying the comments across Auto Care Association brand products and other websites without restriction from time of submission in perpetuity.

Please note that the Auto Care Association:

- Does not endorse the organizations sponsoring linked websites or the views they express or the products/services they offer.
- Does not control or guarantee the accuracy, relevance, timeliness or completeness of information contained on a linked website.
- Reserves the sole right to review, edit and/or delete any comments it deems inappropriate.

For all social media inquiries, please contact Keith.Matthews@autocare.org, with any comments or questions.

For all other media inquiries, content, or republishing requests, please contact communications@autocare.org or call 240-333-1017.